Presents: Michael Dooling, Author/Illustrator - January 17th

Illustrator, Michael Dooling will be visiting MTES on January 17th. He will spend the day teaching our children how to tell a story with a picture. Mr. Dooling will demonstrate how to draw with simple shapes, mix color, and how to paint a face. He will work with the fourth graders in the library as they draw, and he will also have lunch with a group of randomly selected third graders to share his portfolio and answer questions.

Michael Dooling has illustrated over 50 books and has visited over 600 schools nationwide widening children's eyes with a new awareness of history with his "History through Picture Books" School Program.
