All fall sports are entering the playoffs - all teams that are in county tournaments earned the first seed, meaning all of the first-round playoff games will be played at Mendham Township fields.

- Our Field Hockey team is 6-0-2
- I play for the field hockey team, and it may be the first time winning ever for our school.
- I was lucky enough to speak with Mrs. Husten, the head coach, who believes our team has “meshed together and is confident that we will show up our best at every game.”
- In addition, boys soccer is undefeated (14-0), and girls soccer is 11-2-2
- I had a conversation with some of the boys and the coach, who believes the boys will take home yet again another county championship and are looking for a 3-peat
- And lastly, cross country is 8-1 boys, 6-2 girls
- So, I will keep you updated on how all of the teams do

This past Thursday, service dogs came in

- I believe it flipped the mood of many students and was very beneficial
- And I personally would recommend repeating this

We also had a BMX rider come in for the week of respect who did a perfect job creating a twist on a frequently discussed topic

- making it engaging and interesting

Lastly, the eighth-grade trip to New York was a lot of fun. I really enjoyed it and would definitely go back. I have no complaints.

Violence awareness week

The student body is extremely excited to have a delayed opening the day after Halloween.
